

TRUEPATH TECHNOLOGIES INC SOFTWARE END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

By agreeing to have any of TruePath Technologies Inc. software products installed on to your computer equipment and by subsequent use of the Software, you agree to comply with the terms of this general End User License Agreement (“EULA”) where no specific agreement is in place between TruePath Technologies Inc. and the user of the software. If you do not agree to the terms of this EULA, do not install or use the Software but return it for a full refund. This EULA applies to any upgrades and supplements to the original Software provided.

- 1) The Licensed Software is owned and copyrighted by TruePath Technologies Inc. (“TruePath Technologies”). The Software is licensed, not sold, only on the terms of this EULA. Acceptance and installation of the software indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions of this EULA.
- 2) Upon receipt and installation of the software and payment of the license fee, you will acquire the right to use the Software in object code form, directly from TruePath Technologies, although the product may be distributed by a Value Added Reseller (VAR). You assume responsibility for the selection of the program to achieve your intended results, and for the installation, use and results obtained from the Licensed Software.
- 3) In consideration of your acceptance of the terms and conditions contained in this EULA, TruePath Technologies grants you a non-exclusive license to use the Licensed Software and the associated documentation for your own needs on one Server. You are not licensed to rent, lease, transfer or distribute the Software. You may not allow any third party to access or view the Software for any reason other than to assist you professionally in your business where the software is currently being used.
- 4) Title and copyright to the Software, including object code media and documentation, remain with TruePath Technologies. You may not copy, reproduce or make data transmissions, in whole or in part, except as is necessary for back-up or archival purposes. You may not reverse engineer, translate, disassemble or decompile the Software, in whole or in part.
- 5) An Annual License Fee to use, or continue to use, the Software is payable from the 1st of July each year. This fee will generally be based on 10% of the original price of the Software but this percentage may be changed without notice. Failure to pay the Annual License Fee will be in conflict with this EULA and will lead to termination of the contract.
- 6) The license is effective upon acceptance and installation of the Licensed Software and shall continue until terminated. You may terminate it at any time by destroying the Licensed Software media. TruePath Technologies has the right to terminate this Agreement if you fail to comply with any term or condition of this EULA. Upon termination you shall stop all use of the Software and return the Licensed Software and all copies and documentation to TruePath Technologies or destroy the Licensed Software and provide TruePath Technologies with a statutory declaration signed by you declaring that the Licensed Software and the documentation and all copies have been returned or destroyed and the copy of the Licensed Software on the hard disk has been removed.
- 7) Copyright and confidentiality of the Software will survive any termination of this EULA in perpetuity.
- 8) TruePath Technologies disclaims all warranties with regard to the Software, including the implied warranty of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.
- 9) Some Countries/States have laws which require warranty and liability rights different from those stated herein. In those areas the required warranty and liability terms will apply.

- 10) TruePath Technologies' entire liability and your exclusive remedy, if the VAR from whom you acquired the Licensed Software is unable to deliver acceptable replacement media, is limited to your purchase price, which shall be paid to you upon return of the Licensed Software and the statutory declaration required above certifying complete return.
- 11) In no event will TruePath Technologies be liable for any loss of profits, loss of use, or indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages in any way related to or arising out of the use of the Software. TruePath Technologies' maximum liability shall in no event exceed the amounts paid to TruePath Technologies for the Licensed Software.
- 12) The prevailing party in any action or proceeding between TruePath Technologies and End-User Licensee arising out of or related to this Agreement shall be entitled to recover reasonable legal fees and costs, including lawyers' fees, which may be incurred.
- 13) This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the United States and each party agrees to be subject to those relevant laws.
- 14) Copyright law protects the Licensed Software and accompanying documentation. Except as specifically authorized in writing by TruePath Technologies, copying, duplication, sale, distribution or other use of the Licensed Software is prohibited.
- 15) It is understood and acknowledged that TruePath Technologies has the absolute right to obtain injunctive relief to protect TruePath Technologies' proprietary rights.
- 16) By using the Software, you further agree that this is the complete and exclusive statement of the Agreement which supersedes any proposal or prior agreement, oral or written, and any other communications relating to the subject matter of this EULA.
- 17) If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable the remaining provisions will not be affected.
